

By-Law Changes Talked, Hospital Financing Ideas Exchanged At LV Meet

LAKE VILLA—Talks on changes in the association by-laws and its constitution and on plans for the Countryside hospital building itself were heard at a meeting of the hospital association Tuesday evening.

Meeting in the Lake Villa grade school basement cafeteria, directors and other members heard Bill Hooper, Lake Forest architect, outline what he thought would have to be done in financing, building itself and equipment.

Hooper said that federal funds provided by the so-called Hill-Burton law could be obtained under certain conditions for construction purposes.

He said the association must convince authorities that there is a need for such a hospital. He added that others such as would-be patients and people who would contribute funds also must be sold on the idea.

The architect told how the type of patients must be established, especially at first when a relatively small hospital unit might be built due to lack of finances.

Blue Cross, industrial, other insurance firms and the like interest should be sought.

He said the site is of importance and of course the size of the hospital itself must be considered.

The U. S. public health service can make a survey of the needs and such information can be made available to the hospital association.

Attorney Fred Geiger of Waukegan went over proposed amendments to the by-laws and constitution. It was decided to table any action on them Tuesday and consider them again Sunday, Jan. 31, at 2 p. m.

Association president George Heuer read part of a brochure put out by the Condell hospital at Libertyville in which it was stated that it would be 100 per cent behind a hospital in Northwest Lake county.

Mrs. Jane Rundgren, association secretary, is to contact a Highwood contractor regarding construction of the hospital in that community.

Murphy Seeking Re-Election To State Assembly

Rep. W. J. Murphy (R, Antioch) has formally announced that he is a candidate for re-election to his fourth term in the Illinois general assembly.

In Murphy's third term as representative of this district, he has established himself as a defender of home rule and the free enterprise system.

He has fought issues that would allow additional spending without a referendum of the people.

Rep. Murphy has served as state chairman of the road and bridge laws commission and is presently serving as secretary of the county records commission.

In the session completed last July, Murphy served as an assistant to the whip on administration measures on the floor of the house.

Murphy, in announcing his candidacy for a fourth term, pointed out that experience and seniority are two of the most important assets in being able to properly represent a district in the general assembly.

Lake county is fortunate now in having three representatives who have acquired both these assets as this will be Bairstow's fifth term, Murphy's fourth term and Coulson's third term.

These three legislators are known in Springfield for their loyalty to their own district, their independence in voting and their devotion to their duties.

Court Appearance Set For Three Local Men

WAUKEGAN—Three Antioch businessmen were scheduled to appear in Lake county circuit court this week Friday when DuPage county circuit judge William C. Atten is to hear final arguments on motions to dismiss indictments for bookmaking against the trio.

Involved in the case are Russell G. (Bud) Holtz and James Fields, operators of Antioch taverns, and Thomas Griffin, alleged to have operated a handbook.

Improvement Associations Elect Directors Sunday

By Jim Jankowiak

The recently formed Lake County Federation of Improvement associations held a meeting Sunday afternoon, Jan. 10, at the Long Lake railroad station.

Following is the roster of the improvement clubs represented: Duck Lake Woods, Shaw, South Shore association of Long Lake, Fox Lake Hills, Stanton Point, Wooster Lake, East Shore of Wooster Lake, Petite Lake Gardens, Pleasant Hills, Petite Lake Park, and Northeast Grayslake Civic association.

In total, there were 26 people and 11 improvement clubs represented at the meeting.

The charter was received, it was reported by the secretary but as yet, has not been recorded.

It was also mentioned that $60 has been collected to cover the cost of postage, charter, office supplies and miscellaneous expenses.

Walter Jollie, of Baxter and Woodman, civil and sanitary engineers of Crystal Lake, Ill., stated that the firm will cooperate with the federation.

HE SAID THAT his company will be glad to aid the Federation in any matters in which it is able without compensation.

This community service offered by Baxter and Woodman probably will prove to be an invaluable help to efforts of the federation.

There was a summary of the aims of the newly formed group by Robert Flaskamp.

He said that the federation hopes to aid its member associations in such matters as zoning, sanitation and incorporation. Taxes and other matters will also be considered.

The main purpose of the meeting, to elect officers was taken care of by those present. The results of the board of directors election is as follows:

Julie Chonis of Fox Lake Hills; Robert Flaskamp from South Shore association of Long Lake; George Shaw, Pleasant Hills Improvement association; Leif Grude, Wooster Lake Improvement association.

WILLIAM KRUSE of Stanton Subdivision Improvement association, Charles Lindholm from Fox Lake Hills Property Owners association; Joseph Martenucci, East Shore of Wooster Improvement association; Alex Flojer, South Shore Association of Long Lake, and William Raffel from Duck Lake Woods group.

The above nine delegates will serve as the board of directors under the federation's new constitution and by-laws. Out of their number, they will elect the officers of the Board.

Each board member will be chairman of a standing committee of one type or another. He will be in charge of all action pertaining to his phase of the federation's projects.

Considering that the organization is only a few months old, much progress has been made.

Lively Meeting Hears Pros, Cons Of the Proposal

LINDENHURST—The question was not resolved Monday night but a step was taken to bring out a possible final decision on annexation of 500 acres to Lindenhurst at the Lindenhurst village board meeting in February.

The trustees after considerable discussion for and against the plan, voted to ask the village attorney to draw up an ordinance annexing the acreage on both sides of the Beck road and as far north as the Loon Lake road.

Paul Wright, chairman of the village planning commission, early in the evening's meeting recommended on behalf of his committee, that the area be annexed.

More than 60 men and women crowded every available sitting space and most of the standing room for the village trustees' session in the village hall.

Wright told the meeting that his commission had recommended the annexation by unanimous vote if certain standards are set up, such as a park outlet to the Sand Lake road be made bigger and that Beck road be "upgraded."

CHARLES PAWLOWSKI, a member of the village board, read a statement in which he was critical of individual members of the board and of some actions of the group as a whole had taken in several categories.

He in turn introduced several members of the Lake county planning commission and the county board of health.

During discussion by representatives of these two bodies, it was (continued on page 5)

Every resident of the town of Lake Villa should make it a point to check up on the amount of his assessment.

Any property owner who objects to the amount of his assessment should file a formal complaint with the Board of Review at the court house in Waukegan within ten days from the date of publication of this assessment roll.

'NEW' SCOUT HOUSE. This is a view of the interior of the scout house in Antioch after it had been redecorated, repainted and generally refurbished following the fire of last fall. The blaze itself touched little of this main room but there was water and smoke damage. This view taken late last week shows chairs that had been placed around the room getting ready for group meetings that are held here. The Antioch Women's club will meet there next week for its monthly session, the first there since the fire. Village crews helped much in putting the building back in useable shape once again. DEAR READER News Editorials

Are We Unfriendly or Uninterested?

New residents of Antioch have been heard to say people here are "unfriendly." They do not take a stranger into their midst easily. They ignore new people.

It is difficult enough often times for a person to move into a new town, rent or purchase a home, become acquainted with the ins and outs of customs, rules and regulations, start children in school and the like without being "held back" by unfriendly neighbors.

We doubt if these local residents are really unfriendly. Our thought is that they just are not interested, which might be another way of saying they are not friendly.

"Welcome Wagon", an organization found throughout the United States, is designed to do just that, "welcome" new people through gifts from local merchants and a cheery "hello."

With the advent of two or three new subdivisions near Antioch in the offing and another at Lindenhurst being planned, this region will continue to expand its population.

Let's put out the "welcome" mat. Give your new or old neighbor a "cheery hello" when you meet him or her. They are your neighbors, they are your friends.

"Antioch Hi Chatter"

By Mrs. Marie Jasien
Antioch High School Reporter

The 23rd of January marks the close of the first semester of the school year 1959-60.

That means that Thursday and Friday, the 21st and 22nd, will be crowded with semester exams.

This year those exams are going to be a bit different. In other years on exam days there were only four periods the first day and three the second.

These periods were lengthened from fifty-five minutes to an hour, and if a student had an academic course first and second, and physical education third, and lunch fourth he was free to leave school after his last test.

He could go home to do last minute boning on the next day's tests. This applied to any free hours, either day.

This year the exam schedule has been changed drastically. Each student must report to each class for 45 minutes each day.

There will be ten minutes at the end of each period for some quick hunts for information, then the regular passing time.

This means that the student will have to go to study halls and physical education, music courses, etc.

Teachers will be free to give two exams, one on either day, although home teachers feel that one exam will be sufficient.

When the semester is over the students will be bidding good-bye to three well-liked teachers.

Mrs. Esther Hamlin, Mrs. Patricia Cassidy and Mrs. Audrey Van Slochteren.

Mrs. Cassidy has taught at Antioch for 6½ years, and has been teaching speech. Speech is a required course for Juniors, so all students of Junior level and above know Mrs. Cassidy. She was known as the "presence" at the back of the room, watching, writing down comments, and trying to help each student improve his or her speaking habits.

Besides teaching, Mrs. Cassidy has directed many of the plays in the last few years. She will be hard to replace, as is every good teacher.

A teacher well-known to those taking business courses is Mrs. Hamlin. She had been teaching at Antioch for 4½ years, and has taught shorthand, typing, and office practice.

Until last year Mrs. Hamlin was also the sponsor of the school paper, the Tom-Tom. The girls will miss Mrs. Hamlin when she leaves.

Mrs. Van Slochteren has been at Antioch for only one semester, and she has become well liked among the students. Everyone of them that know her is really sorry to have her leave.

She has taught sophomore English and senior business English. Everyone wishes them the best.

Dates of the 1960 Illinois State fair will be August 12 through 21, Stillman J. Stanard, director of agriculture, has announced.

Among the improvements at the 366-acre fairgrounds this year will be a completely resurfaced race track and the completion of remodeling of the swine pavilion.

Robert Babcox Is a Candidate, County Coroner

Formal announcement of his candidacy for a third term as county coroner was made today by Robert (Mickey) Babcox.

Babcox, a lifelong resident of Lake county and longtime Republican, will seek the GOP nomination for the office he has held since 1952, in the April 12 primary election.

The youthful official said he plans to run on the record of achievement which he has compiled since assuming the post.

He pointed to the installation of modern record-keeping system and better relationships between the police departments of the county and the funeral directors of the area as part of the improvements made in the operation of the office during his tenure.

Babcox also stressed the importance of having a topnotch pathologist, Dr. Hugh Wilson, of Lake Forest, on his staff.

A deputy sheriff before being elected coroner, Babcox has had firsthand knowledge of the horrors of highway automobile accidents and has undertaken a personal campaign for greater highway safety preaching the doctrine of safe driving in county schools and before youth and civic groups.

Foremost among the improvements Babcox hopes to make in the department in the future is the establishment of a county morgue at Lake County General hospital to better serve the public and the medical profession.

brought out that of the 850 acres to be annexed, 200 could not be developed for one reason or another.

Summarizing it all, it was estimated 1,050 lots could be laid out in the remaining acres that could be developed.

Under the present county zoning (F-Farming) for the acreages, development would have to be done by acre lots, although it was indicated this could be changed when and if the land was brought into the village.

Pawloski asserted in his statement to the village board that a sewerage system is needed rather than a septic tank plan in the village and suggested at least, that if the new land was annexed, the same would apply there.

HE ESTIMATED the cost of a sewerage system for the new land would be $500,000 or about the same cost as for a septic system for the 1,050 lots.

Representatives of the county planning commission urged that the village of Lindenhurst set standards for any annexed land and said the commission was available to lend aid when and where needed.

They said the question of streets, parks, sewer, water mains and the like must be considered with any annexation.

President Robert Randall of the trustees pointed out that under any annexation, plats would be developed one at a time in a new subdivision, and would be considered by the village planners and by the village board.

It was brought out during the meeting that under new state rules a developer might have to install

Co. Farm Bureau Units to Sponsor Local Meetings

Antioch and Lake Villa people will host meetings in January for lessons on "Lake County Health Services" and "Interesting places to Visit in Lake County" sponsored by the Lake County home bureau units.

The first in this area on Jan. 12 will be at the home of Mrs. E. J. Ritz of Druce Lake, Lake Villa, starting at 1 p. m. This will be a meeting of the Avon farm bureau unit.

Mrs. Verlon Groves will give the lesson on "Lake County Health Services" and the lesson about interesting places in the county will be led by Mrs. Allen Schalk and Mrs. Bert Patterson.

Jan. 20 will be the date of the Lake Region unit meeting at 8 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Vincent Stonis in Antioch.

The lesson on county health services will be given by Mrs. Stonis and Mrs. Richard Wells. The lesson on interesting places will not be given at the Lake Region unit session, according to the announcement this week.

The leaders on one of these subjects was trained by Dr. Arthur Baker, director of the county health department.

"Local leaders, who are key women in their communities, are prepared to give information to their unit members, who need help on health problems," the farm bureau announcement said.

At recent meetings of the farm bureau local leaders brought ideas for interesting tours and visitors to make to places of interest in Lake county for a "year of weekends."

paved roads, gutters, storm sewers and the like on lots whether said lots are developed or not.

The county health board representatives said that body much prefers a community sewerage system to individual systems.

It urged advanced planning in a new subdivision whether it is to be densely developed or if homes will be widely spaced.

LOT SIZES should be based on survey tests of the soil to see whether the soil can take sewerage in individual systems. The health men said soil in the proposed annexation is not good for individual systems.

Four lots to the acre is too "dense" for individual sewerage systems and a community one would be needed, the health men stated.

Randall said the village board feels that the village now needs a central sewerage system but that bonding power of the village is limited under state law so such a community project is not feasible to finance.

The bonding limit of the village now is about $150,000.

However, when the assessed valuation of the village rises to $5 or more, the bonding power might be enough to finance a central system.

No lot sizes have been set as yet for the proposed annexation area, Randall told the meeting.

It was suggested by one person present that the developer might build a sewerage plant for each plat developed and then as more plats are set up this plant could be increased in capacity.

THE COUNTY health department men suggested that the county might some day build interceptor sewers feeding into a central county sewerage plant which might include Lindenhurst, among other communities.

When it came to a vote Monday evening, it was decided to ask the village attorney to draw up an ordinance for annexation to be pre-

Child Discipline To Be Discussed At Channel Lake

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell
Channel Lake Correspondent

CHANNEL LAKE—An unusually interesting PTA meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 20. The program will consist of a panel discussion on child discipline and juvenile delinquency from the view point of a minister, a lawyer and a school administrator.

Members of the panel will be the Rev. Edmund Hood, of St. Ignatius Episcopal church; Ted Larson, lawyer, and Warren Polley, assistant principal of Antioch high school.

All of the men have had considerable experience in dealing with children in different aspects of his daily life.

Parents should find the discussion very enlightening.

Larson will discuss some of the legal obligations of parents. At the close of the discussion, questions may be asked of the panel by the audience.

Apologies for an error in last week's news. It was Kevin Jarvis, not Kevin McCarthy, who presented the colors at the Cub Scout round table at Wauconda.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kaleth and children, Paul and Jean, spent two weeks Christmas vacation at the home of Mr. Kaleth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kaleth of Zephyrhills, Florida. They found the weather colder than usual at this time of year, but still pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chase and children, and Mr. and Mrs. William Chase and family spent a week recently at Rib Lake, Wis.

The Brownies of Troop 74 held their first meeting since the beginning of the Christmas vacation on Jan. 7. The girls started their first project of the year, an individual activities scrapbook in which they will keep a record of all their

Salem High Dance Band Now 'Rhythmettes'

SALEM, Wis.—The newly organized dance band at Salem Central high school will be henceforth known as "The Rhythmettes." The student conductor, Charlene Harris, has called for rehearsals two days a week after school. Members of the dance band are:

Saxes: Charlene Harris, Ross DeVuyt, Carl Schult, Roxanne DeBelle, Marguerite Wehner; trumpet: Tim McLafferty, Gary Growney, and Penny Schutzen.

Trombone: Bruce Benedict, Betty Magwitz and Ellen Bunata; piano, Arlene Schmidt; bass, LeRoy Remer, and drums, Carl Ryba.

Brownie activities through the year. They also had a discussion in which each girl told what her favorite Christmas gift this year was, and the reason she liked it best.

Weather permitting, the girls will have an ice-skating party in place of their regular meeting on Jan. 14.

CHANNEL LAKE "A" TEAM. This is the Channel Lake school "A" basketball team as it rested for a few moments in the school's downstairs assembly room. The team plays its games at home on the Antioch Township high school floor and practices on that gym floor. Ten boys on the squad gives them a good opportunity for intra-squad scrimmage. Shown are, from left, front row, Rog Eberman (guard), Dick Davis (g), Ted Gessler (forward), Tom Hucker (g), Larry Vance (g); back row, Jim Bridges (f), Senhon (f), Ed Matejka (center), Voll Bier (f), Kenneth Stankus, g. (Antioch News photo)

Grant Hi To Offer Course

INGLESIDE—Among the evening courses offered at Grant Community high school will be one devoted to floral decorations.

The class will meet each Wednesday from 7 to 10 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. Frank J. Packee if a minimum enrollment of 25 is met.

The course will be divided into two sections of four weeks each. The first four will deal with floral arrangement, design and color, and the second four weeks will be devoted to table decorations.

According to the Garden club of Illinois, "Mrs. Frank J. Packee is a music major, specializing in harp. Her musical background has made flower arranging a natural hobby and study, since both are closely allied in beauty, rhythm, dominance, repetition, and contrast."

"She is a serious student to Japanese floral art, having received three certificates from the Miskokai school."

"She is a nationally accredited judge, teacher, lectures and conducts classes and workshops in floral arranging and Christmas decorations."

Employment Service Tests at Grant High

INGLESIDE—During the week of January 11 through 15, Grant Community high school seniors who do not plan to enter college immediately after graduation will have an opportunity to participate in a testing program offered by the Illinois state employment service.

The tests are designed to measure several aptitudes which have been found important for success in many occupations.

This information assists counselors in suggesting certain fields of work for which the student seems to be suited.

Individual interviews will be conducted after the tests have been scored and interpreted.

Sequoits Vs. Warren Friday

Capacity Crowd Seen; Tickets To Be Limited

A more than capacity crowd is expected to see the Antioch high-Warren basketball game which will be played Friday evening on the Fighting Sequoit court.

Because there will be more people wanting to see the game than there are seating facilities in the local gymnasium, Antioch officials are conducting a pre-game sale of tickets for students at both high schools involved.

It is felt that the high school students should have preference in the opportunity to purchase the tickets.

No adult tickets will be sold before the gates open before the game on Friday night.

Unsold seating after the pre-game ticket sales to students will be sold at the gate Friday for the adult admission price.

No student tickets will be sold at the gate.

Ticket manager Elmo Edwards has indicated that the doors will open promptly at 6:15 p.m. Friday. Tickets will be sold on a "first come, first served" basis.

As soon as the capacity of the gym is reached, the doors will be closed, principal A. L. Dittman said.

Antioch and Warren currently are tied for first place in the Northwest Suburban league standings with 5 wins and 0 losses each in conference play.

A victory for either team this week could decide at least the first half of the season for first place winner. The first round ends Jan. 22.

There are two more games to play in the first round for each team.

Warren is rated by Antioch coach Larry Leon, a strong foe even though it has lost five non-conference contests while winning as many league games this season.

Grant Hi Loses To Warren Five Despite a Rally

By Jim Glendening
Grant High Sports Reporter

INGLESIDE—Grant high's basketball team, still smarting from a 63-70 defeat at the hands of conference leading Warren last Friday night, travels to Round Lake for league competition Friday night.

The Bulldogs are scheduled to play a non-conference game at Badger high school in Lake Geneva, Wis., Saturday evening.

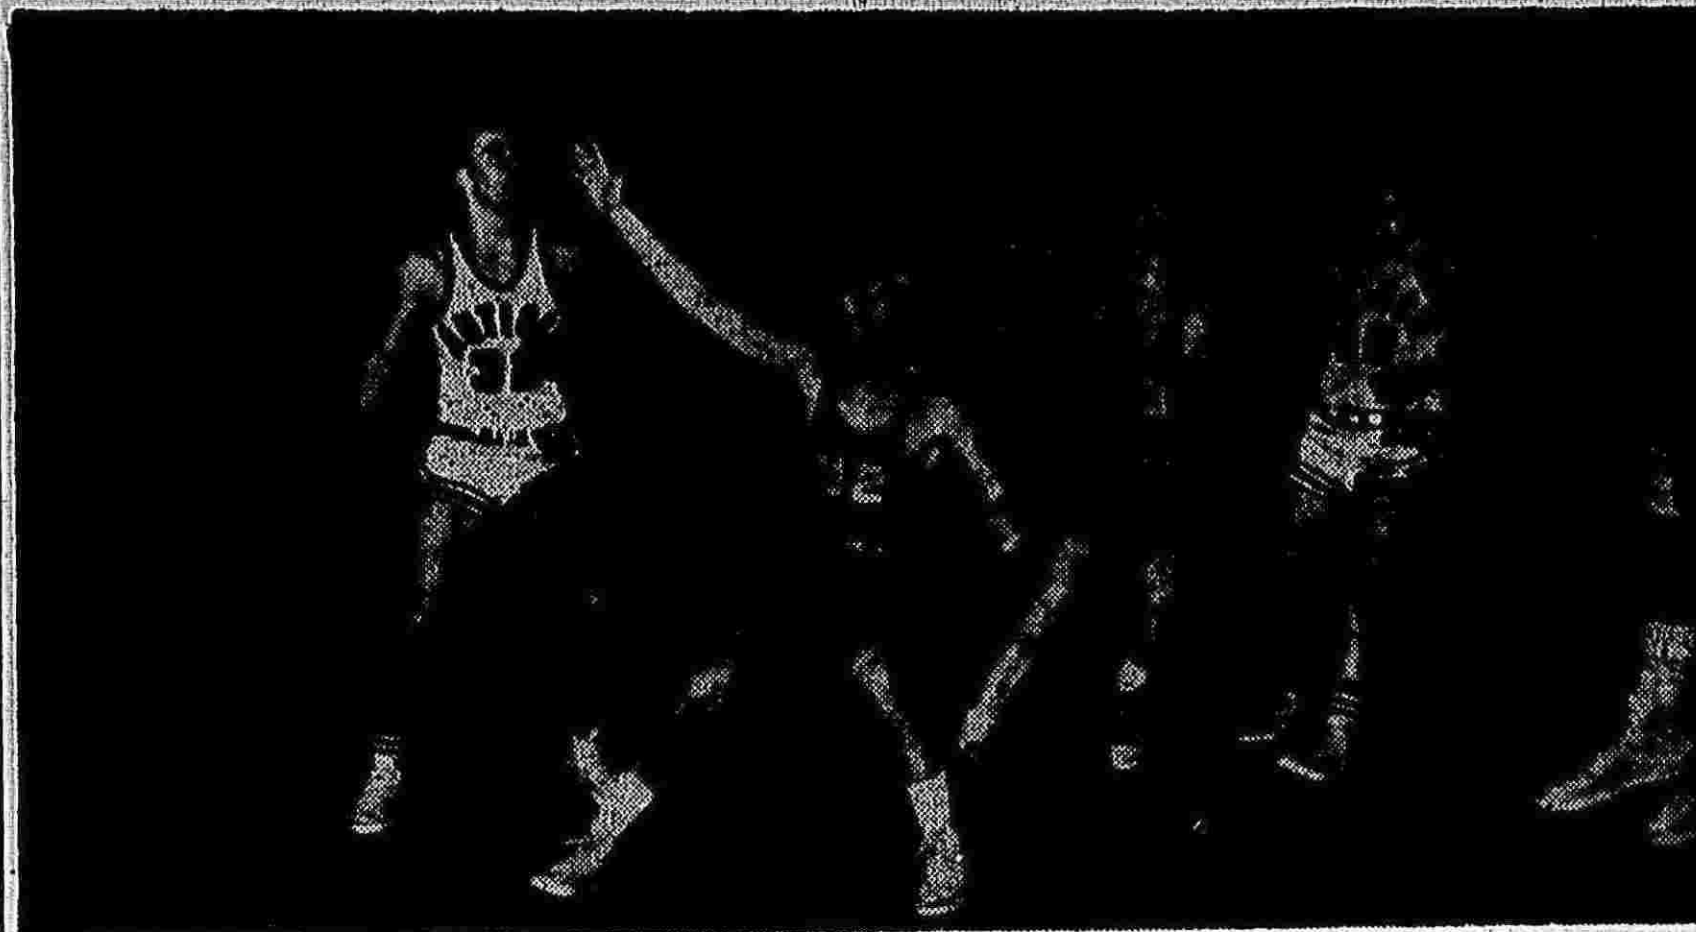

Last Friday night the Warren Blue Devils played the first half as if they were going to break all scoring records.

With Mordhorst, Beshel and Bratky tallying 42 points between them, the Blue Devils left the court at half time leading 47-26.

However, the Bulldogs weren't out of it yet as they caught fire and came back in the last two quarters, led by Frank Riley and Ken Flaks, to scorch the hoop and outscore their rivals 44-36 in the second half.

Bupt it was a case of too little too late for Grant and the Bulldogs lost its fourth Northwest Suburban conference game in five starts.

For Warren is was Mordhorst and Bratky who led the scoring with 28 points each, followed by Beshel with 13.

"DO YOU SEE IT?" That might be the question these players are asking silently as they wait for a possible rebound on a shot by an Antioch high player in the Sequoits conference game with Round Lake on the local floor last Friday evening. A Round Lake player at extreme right apparently is up for any rebound. Antioch players shown are Les Herbst (32), Jerry Dahlman (30) and Don Pyles (40). Part of the better than capacity crowd is shown in the deep background. As it was 75 or 100 persons had to be turned away due to lack of spectator room, principal A. L. Dittman said. The Sequoits won 76-57 to stay undefeated in Northwest Suburban league play. (Antioch News photo)

Central Tops Union Grove Plays at Home Friday Eve.

Williams Bay edged Central high of Salem in a conference basketball game Tuesday evening 57-56 in a ragged ball game played by both teams. It was the first league loss of the season for the Falcons.

Dick Neu with 13 points, Len Krawczyk who tallied 10, Gene Schultz with 10 and Ron Yates who scored 12 led Salem's attack.

SALEM, Wis.—Salem Central high school's Falcons made it 8 wins and one defeat in 1959-60 season games last Friday evening when they dumped Union Grove 79-66 in a Southeastern conference game at Union Grove.

Panthers Play Friday Night; Top Burlington

WILMOT, Wis.—The Wilmut high Panthers will play one of the strongest teams in Southern Lakes conference competition when they meet Lake Geneva high on the Wilmut floor this week Friday evening.

The B squad contest about 6:45 will precede the varsity clash to start about 8:15.

Wilmut put its record up to two wins and three defeats last Friday night by grabbing a 16-8 lead at the end of the first quarter and after that never being in serious trouble, as it downed Burlington 58-43 in league play.

Coach Dale Schroeder reported the entire team played well and shot well. He had praise in particular for Jim Harmon and Gary Held for their rebounding.

Glenn Rasch with 13 points, Greg Bush who sunk 12 and 11 by Held were top scorers for the Panthers. The Panthers missed but 9 out of 31 free throws.

Wilmut led at the first quarter buzzer 16-8, at the half 28-19 and at the third period pause 43-28.

In B squad action the Burlington quintet edged Wilmut 34-31.

Kill 2,648 Deer In State in '59

Deer permits were issued to 15,112 hunters and 2,648 deer were harvested in 35 Illinois counties open during the 1959 shotgun season, making a total of about one hunter in six successful in bagging a deer.

The tabulated figures were released by Glen D. Palmer, director of the state department of conservation.

The largest deer reported was a 376-pound buck taken by H. Max Carner of Stronghurst in Henderson county. Throughout the state, reports showed that 23 of the deer killed weighed in excess of 275 pounds.

Carroll county, in northern Illinois, led in number of deer taken with 388, followed by Ogle county with a total of 368.

Director Palmer stated that in spite of the hunting pressure during three hunting seasons the deer population is increasing.

Scouts Lead Pro-League; Here Sunday

Most of the players are former stars from high schools in this vicinity and the Antioch Scouts would like to invite the basketball fans to watch three interesting contests at Antioch high school Sunday afternoon.

Grayslake will meet Round Lake at 1:30 in the three-game opener, followed by Fox Lake vs. Richmond to start about 2:55 and the Antioch Scouts will meet Wauconda at about 4:20.

FOX LAKE—The Antioch Scouts basketball team took over undisputed possession of first place in the Land-O-Lakes pro-league Sunday afternoon with a 99-79 win over Fox Lake at the Shady Lane grade school.

Richmond went down to defeat at the hands of Grayslake and in the other contest last Sunday Round Lake beat Wauconda in an overtime contest.

The Scouts game was much closer than the score might indicate. At the end of the first half Antioch led but 42-35.

The Scouts unloading a 57-point attack in the second half, opened their lead to 15 points early behind the sharp shooting of Jack Pregenzer and Art Smejkal.

Joe Grennell, one of the league's leading scorers, put Fox Lake back into the game when he tallied five straight field goals. With only 4½ minutes to play the Scouts were ahead by five points.

With the pressure on, Dick Behrens scored 10 points and the Scouts won going away. Antioch outscored Fox Lake 40-37 in field goals and 19-5 from the charity line.

Game top scorer was Pregenzer of Antioch with 30 points. He now leads the league in scoring. Smejkal with his aggressive play around the boards totaled 23 points for Antioch and 20 were by Behrens who played a very good game.

Sid Parker hit for 12 and Leroy Gallagher, who helped Smejkal and Pregenzer control the board, tallied 11. Butch Brownlee played a good defensive game and pushed in 3 points.

Top Bowlers Will Show Here on Sunday at 12:30

The March of Dimes as well as many bowlers from this vicinity will benefit from a match bowling game to be rolled Sunday afternoon, Jan. 17, at the Antioch Bowl. Competition will start at 12:30.

Through the efforts of Bill McCormick of Antioch, one of the top classic league teams in Chicago will be in Antioch to meet a team of five leading keggers from Antioch.

Those watching will have an opportunity to contribute to the March of Dimes through "passing the hat."

Representing Antioch will be an all-star five from the local Major Bowling league.

They will include Joe Sterbenz,

Jr., with a 197 average, Vern Baker 196, Larry Dee 196, Marv Shepard 196 and Mike Badame 195.

The Chicago team known as the Old Fitzgerald-Corbin Still Bourbon of the Classic league in that city holds many team and individual bowling records.

Championships have been taken in Vogel league and the Rocky Sarvo league and also the team has won the Pontiac, Ill., singles title and finished second in the ABC of 1956.

The Chicago quintet finished third in both divisions of the Chicago Classic league competition. They have a team average of 1002.

Otto Mehus is team captain and other members are Joe Simonis, Lou Cioffi, Bill Weise and Ed Brosium. The latter, a newcomer to the quintet, is said to be one of the best bowlers seen in Chicago in the last decade.

Following the match game at the Antioch Bowl members of both teams and their wives will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. McCormick at their home.

Proprietors of the local alleys suggest fans arrive early to be sure of obtaining seats as a capacity crowd of spectators is expected.

Lindenhurst Job Delayed

LINDENHURST—Grading work in connection with construction of the shopping center at Lindenhurst has been delayed first by heavy rains which made the ground too soft and early this week by freezing weather.

A Wauconda firm has the contract for grading the area extending from a sign near a Shell service station east several hundred feet from the Sand Lake road to Lindenhurst drive.

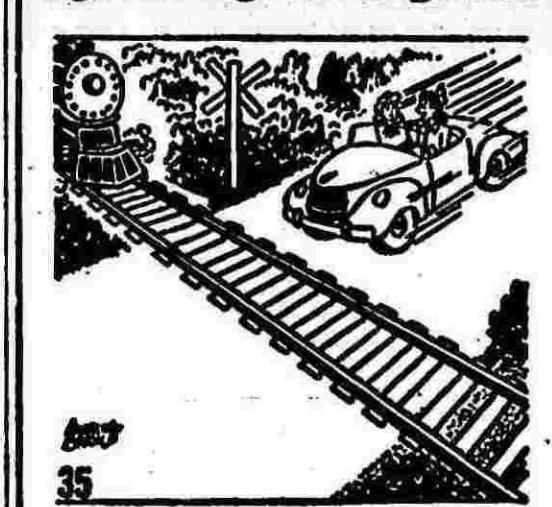

Two or three graders were parked on the property early this week awaiting more favorable weather and ground conditions.

Morton Engle told last week of how plans call for building the center in three stages from 18 months to two years apart. Each stage would consist of about 25,000 square feet of store space.

Piggly Wiggly stores already have contracted for the grocery-meat store in the shopping center.

Cold weather can cause slippery conditions—particularly on bridges and overpasses—by the formation of frost, even in generally clear weather.

Slightly Higher Red Meat Costs At Retail Levels Seen This Week

CHICAGO—Although difficult to detect, slightly higher red meat costs prevail at retail levels this week—without price tags being marked up.

If consumers think this is slight-of-hand, the University of Illinois consumer service's weekly survey offers this explanation:

1. Markets are going through a characteristic post-holiday series of adjustments—reduction in supplies due to short work weeks, a swing away from holiday featured items and changing consumer preferences.

2. Livestock and wholesale costs are higher (because of lower supplies) but stores are not passing these increases along fully.

Most eliminated the low side of price ranges that prevailed and held the high side of the ranges quoted during the past two or three weeks.

This along with more conservative promotions actually result in firmer costs without any generally higher price tags showing.

IN THE PROCESS, the U of I's consensus market value rating swings to selected fresh pork lines and beef steaks in red meats, and to fryers and light-weight stewing hens in poultry.

Other beef, smoked pork, lamb and poultry lines therefore are lesser relative values or do not rate a value position at all.

Elsewhere on the broad food fronts, fresh produce check out on continued improvement in supplies and costs, with prices and quality ranging widely.

Citrus fruits are major values now, and more vegetables continue to drop in cost—exceptions being high priced tomatoes, sweetcorn and cucumbers.

More staples in grocery departments emerge as better values and receive feature attention. In dairy departments, while fluid milk is higher due to last week's price increases, eggs and butter are cheaper.

In retail stores, gallon sizes took the least jump per quart, up 3c, while half-gallons increased 2c and quart sizes 1c.

Weighing these changes along its yardstick of value measurement, the U of I lists the following consensus values for the marketing week ending Jan. 16:

MEATS—Pork loin and butt roasts, pork tenderloins, beef steaks; Poultry—fryers, stewing hens under 4-pounds, large eggs; Produce—broccoli, radishes, lettuce, celery, oranges, grapefruit, pears; Groceries—tomato products, tuna fish, coffee, flour, frozen orange juice, peaches and fruit cocktail.

Pricing patterns:
Pork—Tenderloins rate a value nod at 69-79c because of no waste—no bone, no fat, all meat. Rib portion cuts quote 35-39c, loin portions 45-49c. Fresh butts, also a shade higher on the low side, quote 35-39c.

Center cut chops are up generally, tagged now 75-85c. Spare ribs hold at 43-45c. Not too much attention to hams as most smoked lines quote higher retails, such as bacon showing a consensus 55c.

Beef—All low-range quotes of week-ago disappear for roasts so that typical pricing now shows chucks 49c, round bones 65c and ribs 79c.

The ranges hold for steaks, but less prevalent for the low quotes—round steak 65-69c, sirloins 85c-$1.05, porterhouse 95c-$1.19.

Lamb—Holds last week's retails despite higher wholesales—leg roasts 59-69c, shoulder roasts 49c, shoulder chops 69-75c, rib chops 79-98c and loin chops 89c-$1.19.

POULTRY—Fryers that started to quote lower last week show a major drop now to 29-35c competitively with many features at 29c, and 3 to 4 pound stewers are lower to 29-35c.

Four to 6 pounders reflect a firmer wholesale at 49c, to match the consensus level all-weight quotes for turkeys.

Dairy—Eggs dipped at retail for the first time in several weeks, grade A large quoting 39-43c. Butter is down slightly, too, 93-score showing 65c.

Fluid milk in stores averages 1c per quart more, quarts quoting 2 for 47c (up from 2 for 45c); half-gallons up 2c to 46c (from 44c), and gallons up 3c to 89c (from 86c).

No specific pricing really exists on the Chicago market, these quotes vary by store. No market changes noted for cheese.

PRODUCE—Indicative of the improved vegetable situation are cabbage at 9-10c, carrots 10c, celery 25-29c, lettuce 15-19c, and green beans significantly lower to 29c.

At the other extreme are cucumbers pricing 19-25c each, tomatoes 35-39c per pound and sweetcorn $1.00 per dozen. In between fall most other items.

Medicine Cabinet Needs 'First Aid'

By O. L. Hogsett
Safety Specialist

URBANA—Your medicine cabinet needs "first aid" if it is typical of many at this time of year.

It's not safe to let it groan under the weight of medicines your family no longer uses.

Get rid of them. They may cost a life if they are taken accidentally.

If you must keep poisons or dangerous drugs, such as sleeping pills and other sedatives, keep them in a cabinet separate from the much-used medicines.

If children can reach the cabinet, fasten it with a lock that they can't open.

More than four-fifths of all fatal accidental poisonings occur in the home. About one-third of the victims are children under four years.

As you inventory your medicine cabinet, you will probably find that you need to replenish certain supplies.

It is a good idea to buy an extra bottle of antiseptic and some burn ointment, recommended by your doctor, for the kitchen.

Then you'll be able to treat cuts and burns promptly without going to the medicine cabinet.

Treating burns quickly usually lessens the pain and speeds healing.

'Happiness Box' to Help Sick Child, Can Arouse Abilities, Imagination

By Lila Odehark

Illinois U. Home Economist

URBANA—“Something different to do” is still the top order for bed-ridden children in spite of television and countless toys.

To fill the bill, we suggest to parents that a “happiness box” will help convalescing children amuse themselves quietly for hours.

The contents of the box, composed of ordinary objects in any home, can arouse children's creative abilities and imagination. These objects may be teamed with such items as scissors, paste and crayons.

The chief merit of this activity stems from the fact that children enjoy a greater feeling of accomplishment when they create their own “masterpieces” than when they just operate toys.

The “happiness box” is particularly useful as the child regains his strength but must still remain reasonably inactive.

TO MAKE a “happiness box,” start with any light-weight box or carton. Fill it with a wide variety of simple objects.

The number will depend on the age, fancies and skills of the child, but the choice is endless.

Remember that many inexpensive or “used” items often fascinate children more than those costing large sums.

These items can be restocked or refreshed at intervals. But the box must be kept ready for use during convalescent days in order to get the most benefit from it.

Use the box for “low” periods in convalescence when other activities have been boring. But keep it as a treat so that it will not become stale.

To assure fresh appeal each time the box is used keep it out of reach of healthy children.

ALLOW THE YOUNGER child only enough objects for one project at a time. Young children may be easily confused by too much at a time.

But an older child can select items from the box as he wishes.

What types of materials can be included in a “happiness box”? Here are some suggestions:

Old Christmas cards, wrapping paper, ribbon, colorful or novel calendars, assorted small boxes, cork spools, bottle tops, empty match boxes and covers, bits of felt, old costume jewelry, construction paper, clothespins and paper doilies.

Used Christmas Cards Wanted

Used Christmas cards are wanted. A country school in Mississippi, an academy in the Philippines and a Catholic suster in Poland can use these old Christmas cards where materials are used to make art objects.

Materials are used to make items for resale to raise funds for a monastery in Poland, for instance. Cards bundled together may be mailed to Sister Mary of the Sacred Heart, 44 Kopernika St., Cracow, Poland.

Cards also are welcomed at Piney Woods Country school, Piney Woods, Miss., and at St. Columbus academy, Lingayen, Pangasinan, Philippine Islands. The latter may be addressed to Missionary Sisters in care of the academy.

Only the artwork, foil or other fancy ornamentation, need be sent to the Polish nuns.

Several readers have suggested this as an answer to a question of what to do with the multitude of Christmas cards received at most every home each holiday season.

“Reminiscence”

To my storehouse of memory I often take a turn When having the blues or for adventure years.

It is then I go there, to that storehouse to full And from dusty bin or a shelf something pull.

And in this old storehouse, when I there go in Ruminating around from shelf and to bin,

Lots of cobwebs and dust do cover the lot, But Oh, I find much, much more than I sought.

Yes, a great many things there, dormant so long Bring back recollections, childhood them among.

They've laid there a long time, covered with dust, Yet well preserved, and not marred from rust.

These things high forgotten, from long, long ago But now rediscovered, they intrigue me so;

When lonely, depressed, I stroll into the place Brush away what's obscure, what I find me amaze.

As I gaze on what's there, from the long, long ago, Thoughts fly hither and yon, and to and fro,

And I am overwhelmed, myself I must rouse; And not linger too long in my memory-house.

Postpone Hearing on Bong Air Force Base

A public hearing originally planned for sometime in January on sounding out public opinion regarding future use of Bong Air Force base has been postponed indefinitely.

The governor's committee on land use has adopted a “wait and see” policy, awaiting what may happen in Washington, D. C. by the congressional military affairs committee.

Motorists who find themselves driving during foggy conditions are advised to reduce their driving speed; set headlights on dim to cut down glare; if fog is too thick, pull your car off the road and wait until visibility improves.

Private Nurses To ‘Up’ Charges

Fees for registered professional nurses doing private duty in Lake and McHenry counties will be $20 per eight hour shift, effective Feb. 15, it was announced by Mrs. Glendora Hanson, R. N., Chairman of the private duty nurses section, District 16, Illinois Nurses' association.

Mrs. Glendora Hanson said, “The professional private duty nurses in District 16 decided on the increase of fee from $18 to $20 per eight hour shift only after careful investigation indicated it was necessary both from the standpoint of the public and the nurses.”

“Private duty must be as financially attractive as other assignments or there will not be enough professional nurses in the field to meet critical service demands.”

Private duty nurses are employed an average of 240 days in a year, so that the new rate represents an average gross income of $480 per month.

Since they are self-employed, nurses during private duty do not receive social security from an employer, paid vacation or sick leave with salary.

They must pay their own insurance and make their own retirement arrangements.

A Simple and Nourishing Treat

Homemakers with young children find it necessary to plan time very carefully in order to take care of the daily routine jobs in running a family. One of the major factors in this kind of planning is concerned with meal preparation. The wise mother has learned to prepare dishes which are appealing and suitable for all members of the family. An excellent example in the dessert line can be found with a simple recipe such as egg custard. This nourishing treat is appropriate for the entire family. Adults and children both enjoy this kind of pudding, and if there happens to be a new baby in the family who has started to eat solid food, the custard will fit right into his diet. Double-rich Carnation Evaporated milk is a featured ingredient adding important nutrients necessary in the daily diet. Here is the recipe developed in the home service department of the Carnation Company.

SOFT EGG CUSTARD (Makes 6 servings)

1 cup undiluted evaporated milk
1 cup water
4 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine evaporated milk and water and heat to boiling point. Combine eggs, sugar and salt; mix well. Pour milk slowly over egg mixture, stirring constantly. Return mixture to saucepan and cook over hot (not boiling) water 5-6 minutes, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened. Remove from heat and stir in vanilla. Cool.

Fox Lake Hills Club Is Center Of Controversy

By Jim Jankowiak
Fox Lake Hills Correspondent

FOX LAKE HILLS—The Fox Lake Hills Sports club is the center of the big fishing derby controversy. It all began when the club decided to run a fishing derby at the end of January in conjunction with nearby Ray's resort.

Members assumed that it was a good idea so they formed a committee, had posters printed and distributed throughout the area, in the Lake Region.

The posters offered a first prize of $50, and on the bottom, notification that entrants could register either at the Fox Lake Hills beach house or at the resort.

This aroused the wrath of many of the residents, who claimed that showing people where the beach was would induce them to come around in the summer and launch their boats and go swimming on the subdivision's private property.

This, in turn, would make the deputies' job, to patrol the beaches and parks and keep trespassers out, much harder.

The Fox Lake Hills Improvement association then stepped in and offered to take the situation over with people of the subdivision and the Sports club. The meeting was to be held some time this week.

It was expected that the association board will turn down the Sports club's petition for several reasons, mainly popular opinion against the derby and legal complications.

Ray, however, says that he will run the event from his resort, no matter what the association decrees concerning the beach-house. Ray says that he should be able to handle much of the traffic himself.

The Woman's auxiliary held its monthly meeting at the Holy Family church last Wednesday evening. Hostesses for Jan. 6 were Pam Grogan, Donna Pote, and Isabelle McCormick.

The ladies will hold a bake and rummage sale on March 11 and 12 at the Lake Villa grade school gym.

This sale will be for a very worthy cause, the new Countryside hospital, to be erected at Grand Avenue and Grub Hill road. Members are also planning for their spring dance, a followup to their successful autumn affair.

At the Sports club meeting, held at Ray's resort last Thursday night, the topic that roused the most interest and discussion was the fishing derby cited above.

In other action, the club decided to look into the possibilities of joining a volleyball round robin to be held in the latter part of March. A report will be given next meeting.

Walt Soderman, president of the club, gave a brief outline of a new sporting club in the county, the Sports-a-Wing group, which aims to fly its members out to good hunting and fishing spots.

Walt said that a representative of that organization would come out to the club's next meeting and give further details.

Jim Jankowiak was nominated and elected secretary to fill the unexpired term of John Bartholomew, who has moved from the subdivision.

The Teen club reported at its last meeting that its Christmas dance was a success every way you look at it, except financially. The officer said that the club went slightly into the red on the affair.

Mary Ellen Dvorak, club president, said the teens now are working on a new set of by-laws to take the place of the temporary set drafted when the organization was formulated.

Grass Lake PTA Meet

Regular meeting of the Grass Lake school Parent-Teacher association will be held at 8 p.m. Monday, Jan. 18, in the schoolhouse, officers reminded members this week. "Men's Night" will be observed.
